

Canada:PhD in Management-Finance Specialization

The PhD specialization in Finance at McGill University aims to attract individuals who possess a strong academic background, personal initiative, and the potential to become excellent researchers. Our PhD

Program offers the best of American and European approaches to doctoral studies. We combine structured coursework with student autonomy and create a cooperative environment between students, faculty, and the four collaborating universities in the Montreal area:

McGill University, HEC-Montreal (affiliated with Université de Montréal), Concordia University, and Université du Québec à Montréal.

The PhD specialization in Finance prepares students for research-oriented academic careers.

McGill offers only September admission for PhD program of the same calendar year in which admission is sought. The deadline of January 15 is for all applicants (Canadian and international). Selected candidates will be offered guaranteed funding of at least $25,000 per year for a four-year period.

QUALIFICATIONS: Candidates typically hold a Master's level degree, with a strong academic record from a recognized university. Under exceptional circumstances students have been admitted without a Master's degree. Students from all backgrounds are encouraged to apply: We have admitted students with degrees in economics, finance, mathematics, statistics, computer science, engineering or physics.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: Please follow the application guidelines available at <http://www.mcgill.ca/desautels/programs/phd/admissions>

Deadline is January 15, 2017 for September 2017 admission. You will need to provide:

1. Transcripts: Transcripts of grades from all universities attended are required.

2. GMAT Score: The Graduate Management Admission Test is required of all applicants (McGill institution code 58H-MN-62). The GRE (General Test) official scores taken within the last five years would be accepted as a substitute for GMAT.
